BYLAWS

OF

THE UOR FOUNDATION

(a Colorado Nonprofit Corporation)

ARTICLE I CORPORATE PURPOSE

1.1 Name. The Corporation shall be known as The UOR Foundation (the "Corporation").

1.2 Purpose. The primary purpose of the Corporation shall be to develop a universal data standard for the semantic web, open science, and frontier technologies. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"). The Corporation may perform such other actions as permitted by its Articles of Incorporation ("Articles"), these Bylaws, the Code, and the Colorado Revised Nonprofit Corporations Act ("Act").

ARTICLE II OFFICES

2.1 Business Offices. The principal office of the Corporation in the State of Colorado shall be at such location as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the State of Colorado, as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

2.2 Registered Office. The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Colorado a registered office, and a registered agent whose office is identical with such registered office. The current registered agent is Alex Flom. The registered office may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office of the Corporation in the State of Colorado. The registered agent and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III MEMBERS

The Corporation shall not have voting members as that term is used in the Act and shall have no capital stock. However, the Corporation may have such classes of nonvoting members as may from time to time be prescribed by its Bylaws or by the Board of Directors. The designation of each class of members and their respective manner of election or appointment, qualifications, tenure, terms of membership, rights, limitations and obligations shall be as provided from time to time in the Bylaws of the Corporation or by the Board of Directors. Members shall have no voting rights or other management powers. The Corporation shall be governed exclusively by the Board of Directors pursuant to Article IV hereunder.

Notice: The Articles of Incorporation filed with the Colorado Secretary of State on February 21, 2025 (Document No. 20251193974) currently reflect voting members. The Board of Directors intends to file an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation to conform to these Bylaws, confirming that the Corporation has no voting members. Governance authority is vested exclusively in the Board of Directors, consistent with the open-source stewardship model of the UOR Foundation, the canonical governance framework for which is maintained at https://github.com/UOR-Foundation/.github.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1 General Powers. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors (the "Board"). The Board of Directors shall have all powers of a Board of Directors subject to any limitations set forth in the Act, the Articles of Incorporation, and these Bylaws.

4.2 Number and Eligibility. There shall be no less than three (3) and no more than nine (9) Directors of the Corporation ("Directors"). Initially, the Board shall be comprised of five (5) Directors. Directors need not be residents of the State of Colorado. All Directors shall serve until they resign, are removed or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Directors shall have equal voting privileges to consist of one vote each.

4.3 Composition. The Board shall include the following five (5) positions, reflecting the interdisciplinary stewardship required to advance the UOR Framework across its scientific, technical, and community dimensions:

- (i) Chair of the Board: provides strategic leadership and overall governance of the Corporation and the UOR Framework mission.
- (ii) Treasurer: oversees financial integrity and sustainability of the Corporation and its open-source infrastructure.

OpenSign™ DocumentId: yB1lX9vHeg

(iii) Secretary: maintains corporate records, minutes, and governance documentation.

(iv) Independent Director: provides independent oversight and accountability, with no other material affiliation to the Corporation or the UOR Framework project.

(v) Research Director: contributes subject-matter expertise in areas relevant to the UOR Framework, which may include computer science, mathematics, formal verification, agentic AI, or related fields.

4.4 Election and Term of Office. Directors shall be elected by the Board. Each Director shall serve a term of three (3) years, or until a successor is elected and qualified. Terms may be staggered to ensure continuity of governance. All Directors shall serve until they resign, are removed, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

4.5 Removal of Directors. Any Director may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, excluding the Director in question.

4.6 Vacancies. Whenever a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors by reason of death, resignation, incapacity, removal or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

4.7 Regular Meetings. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held upon notice each year at such time as determined by the Board of Directors, and shall be called by the Chair, or if none, by any Director. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time for the holding of additional regular meetings of the Board of Directors with notice to be given as set forth herein.

4.8 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chair or any Director. Notice of any special meeting shall state the purpose or purposes of the special meeting.

4.9 Notice of Meeting. Notice of each meeting of the Board stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given to each Director at such Director's business or residential address at least five (5) days prior thereto by the mailing of written notice by mail or at least two (2) days prior thereto by telephone, facsimile, electronic transmission or any other form of wire or wireless communication (and the method of notice need not be the same as to each Director). A Director may waive notice of any meeting before or after the time and date of the meeting stated in the notice.

4.10 Quorum and Voting. A majority of Directors serving the Corporation at the time notice of a meeting of Directors is given shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting of the Board of Directors; but if less than a majority of the Directors are present at said meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn and reconvene the meeting from time to time without further notice. The act of a majority of Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors unless a greater number of votes are required by the Act or these Bylaws.

4.11 Voting by Proxy. No Director may vote or act by proxy at any meeting of the Directors.

4.12 Action Without Meeting. Any action of the Board may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the Board at which all directors were present. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors unless a different effective time is provided in the written action. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors shall be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Action taken pursuant to this section may be transmitted or received by mail or by facsimile, email, or other form of communication permitted by the Act and must be in a form sufficient to identify (i) the Director or committee member; (ii) the Director's or committee member's vote, abstention, demand, or revocation; and (iii) the proposed action to which such vote, abstention, demand or revocation relates. For purpose of this section, communication to the Corporation is not effective until received.

4.13 Deemed Assent. A Director who is present at a meeting of the Board when action is taken is deemed to have assented to all action taken at the meeting unless such Director objects as required under the Act. Such right of dissension or abstention is not available to a Director who votes in favor of the action taken.

4.14 Telecommunication Meetings. Directors or the members of any committee of the Board may participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all members participating may hear each other during the meeting. A Board Member or committee member participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

4.15 Compensation. Directors and committee members shall not receive compensation for their services as such; however, the reasonable expenses of Directors and committee members for attendance at meetings may be paid or reimbursed by the Corporation. Directors and committee members shall not be disqualified to receive reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the benefit of the Corporation in any other capacity.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

5.1 Officers. The board officers of the Corporation ("Officers") shall be one (1) Chair, one (1) Secretary, one (1) Treasurer, and such other Officers as may be elected in accordance with the provisions of this Article V. The Board of Directors may elect or appoint such other Officers as it shall deem desirable, including a Vice Chair and an Executive Director, and such Officers shall have the authority and perform the duties prescribed, from time to time, by the Board of Directors. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person.

5.2 Election and Term of Office. The Officers of the Corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors. If the election of Officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. New offices may be created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each Officer shall hold office until a successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified.

5.3 Removal. Any Officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby; but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the Officer so removed.

5.4 Resignation. An Officer may resign by delivering his or her written resignation to the Board or the Chair. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt (unless specified to be effective at some other time), and acceptance thereof shall not be necessary to make it effective unless it so states.

5.5 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term.

5.6 Chair. The Chair shall be the principal Officer of the Corporation. The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the members of the Board of Directors and shall sign any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments on behalf of the Corporation, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws or by statute to some other Officer or agent of the Corporation; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of Chair and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

5.7 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the Corporation; receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the Corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the Corporation in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected by the Board of Directors; and in general perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Chair or by the Board of Directors.

5.8 Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; be custodian of the corporate records; and in general perform all duties incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Chair or by the Board of Directors.

5.9 Vice Chair. If there is a Vice Chair, and in the absence of the Chair or in the event of the inability or refusal to act of the Chair, the Vice Chair may perform the duties of the Chair, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Chair. The Vice Chair shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Chair or by the Board of Directors.

5.10 Executive Director. The Executive Director shall, subject to the direction and supervision of the Board of Directors: (i) be the chief executive officer of the Corporation and have general and active control of its affairs and business and general supervision of its officers, agents and employees; (ii) propose, prepare and present to the Board of Directors specific programs and activities that will further the Corporation's purposes; (iii) direct and supervise the implementation of the programs and activities approved by the Board of Directors; and (iv) perform all other duties incident to the office of Executive Director (including hiring and terminating employees, independent contractors, and agents of the Corporation) as from time to time may be assigned to such office by the Board of Directors.

OpenSign™ DocumentId: yB1lX9vHeg

5.11 Compensation. Board officers shall not receive compensation for their services as such officers. The compensation, if any, of the Executive Director shall be as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors, or by an Officer or a committee to which such authority has been delegated by the Board of Directors. To the extent reasonably feasible, the person or persons determining compensation shall obtain data on the compensation of officers holding similar positions of authority within comparable organizations, shall set the compensation based on such data and an evaluation of the Officer's performance and experience as related to the requirements of the position, and shall document the basis for the determination including the comparison data used, the requirements of the position, and the evaluation of the Officer's performance and experience. No Officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that the Officer is also a Director. However, no payment of compensation (or payment or reimbursement of expenses) shall be made in any manner so as to result in the imposition of any liability under Section 4958 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time, or the similar provision of any future tax code ("Code").

ARTICLE VI COMMITTEES

6.1 Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors may designate and appoint one or more committees of the Board of Directors which shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors as granted in the resolution appointing the committee. The appointment of any such committee and the delegation of authority thereto shall not relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual Director, of any responsibility imposed upon them by law. Standing committees may include, without limitation: a Finance and Audit Committee; a Governance and Nominations Committee; a Technical Oversight Committee responsible for stewarding the UOR Framework specification, open-source repositories, and public API infrastructure; and a Community and Outreach Committee responsible for supporting the open developer, researcher, and practitioner community engaged with the UOR Framework.

6.2 Term of Office. Each member of a committee shall continue as such until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Corporation and until the member's successor is appointed, unless the committee is sooner terminated, such member is removed from the committee, or the member ceases to qualify as a member.

6.3 Chair. One member of each committee shall be appointed chair of such committee by the Board of Directors or if not appointed by the Board of Directors by the members of the committee. The Chair shall call, conduct and cause minutes to be prepared for each committee meeting.

OpenSign™ DocumentId: yB1lX9vHeg

6.4 Vacancies. Vacancies in the membership of any committee may be filled by appointments made in the same manner as provided in the case of the original appointments.

6.5 Quorum. Unless otherwise provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors designating a committee, a majority of the whole committee shall constitute a quorum and the act of a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the committee.

6.6 Rules. Each committee may adopt rules for its own government not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, any rules adopted by the Board of Directors, or the Act.

6.7 Advisory Committees. The Board, in its discretion, may designate and appoint one or more advisory committees or individual advisors to the Board of Directors (collectively, "Advisors to the Board"). Any such Advisors to the Board shall serve in an advisory capacity only and shall have no right to vote on Board decisions.

6.8 Limitations on Authority of a Committee. No committee shall have the authority to amend, alter or repeal Bylaws; elect, appoint or remove any member of a committee or any Director or Officer of the Corporation; amend, alter or repeal any resolution of the Board; or to approve any acts forbidden to be authorized by committees pursuant to the Act.

ARTICLE VII CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DEPOSITS, GIFTS AND PROXIES

7.1 Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any Officer or Director, agent or agents of the Corporation, in addition to the Officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

7.2 Checks, Drafts, Etc.. All checks, drafts or orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of the Corporation, shall be signed by such Officer or Officers, agent or agents of the Corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors. In the absence of such determination by the Board of Directors, such instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Chair of the Corporation.

7.3 Deposits. All funds of the Corporation shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the Corporation in such banks, or other depositaries as directed by the Board of Directors.

7.4 Gifts. The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the Corporation any contribution, gift, bequest or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of the Corporation so long as consistent with the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws. Accepted gifts shall be applied in furtherance of the Corporation's mission to develop and maintain the UOR Framework as a freely available public resource, including support for open-source development, research, community infrastructure, and educational initiatives.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Indemnification. The Corporation shall indemnify, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, member of any committee of the Corporation, fiduciary or employee of the Corporation against any claim, liability or expense arising against or incurred by such person made a party to a proceeding because such person is or was a Director, officer, agent, member of any committee of the Corporation, fiduciary or employee of the Corporation, or because such person is or was serving another entity as a director, officer, partner, employee, fiduciary or agent or member of any committee at the Corporation's request.

8.2 Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person who is or was a Director, officer, employee, fiduciary, agent or member of any committee of the Corporation, or who, while a Director, officer, employee, fiduciary, agent or member of any committee of the Corporation, is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, partner, member, manager, trustee, employee, fiduciary, or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, nonprofit corporation, or other person or of an employee benefit plan, against liability asserted against or incurred by the person in that capacity or arising from the person's status as a Director, officer, employee, fiduciary, agent or member of any committee of the Corporation.

8.3 Limitation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 8, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person or purchase or maintain such insurance, to the extent that any such indemnification, purchase, or maintenance would be determined to be an act of self-dealing within the meaning of Section 4941 of the Code, or to be otherwise prohibited under the Code, unless and to the extent (i) a court orders such indemnification, or (ii) the purchase or maintenance of such insurance can be treated as reasonable compensation to such person.

ARTICLE IX AMENDMENTS

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new Bylaws may be adopted by the Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors if proper notice is given pursuant to Section 4.9; provided, however, that these Bylaws may not be amended in a manner which is inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation or which would disqualify the Corporation under §501(c)(3) of the Code. Such notice shall summarize the proposed changes to be made.

ARTICLE X STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

10.1 General Standards of Conduct. Each Director shall discharge the Director's duties as a Director, including the Director's duties as a member of a committee of the Board, and each Officer shall discharge the Officer's duties, (i) in good faith, (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and (iii) in a manner the Officer or Director reasonably believes to be in the Corporation's best interests.

10.2 Reliance on Information. In discharging his or her duties, a Director or Officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by (i) one or more Officers or employees of the Corporation whom the Director or Officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matter presented, (ii) legal counsel, a certified public accountant, or another person as to matters the Director or Officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence, or (iii) in the case of a Director, a committee of the Board of which the Director is not a member if the Director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence. A Director or Officer is not acting in good faith if the Director or Officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this Section 10.2 above unwarranted.

10.3 Conflicts of Interest. The Board shall adopt a Conflict of Interest Policy. A Director shall promptly disclose to the Board the material terms of any proposed transaction or action involving the Corporation with respect to which such Director may have a conflict of interest. The disclosure shall include all material facts regarding the terms of the transaction, and any relationship that the Director may have with other parties involved in the transaction. Should a conflict of interest exist, the Board shall comply with the requirements of the Act and its duly adopted Conflict of Interest Policy.

OpenSign™ DocumentId: yB1lX9vHeg

10.4 Compliance with Standards of Conduct. A Director or Officer is not liable in his or her capacity as a Director or Officer to the Corporation for any action taken or omitted to be taken as a Director or Officer, as the case may be, if, in connection with such act or omission, the Director or Officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this Article X.

ARTICLE XI RECORDS

11.1 Minutes, Records, Etc.. The Corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of each Board, a record of all actions taken by any Board without a meeting, a record of all actions taken by a committee of any Board in place of such Board on behalf of the corporation, and a record of all waivers of notices of meetings of each Board or any committee of each Board.

11.2 Accounting Records. The Corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

11.3 Records in Written Form. The Corporation shall maintain its records in written or electronic form.

11.4 Records Maintained at Principal Office. The Corporation shall keep a copy of each of the following records at its principal office:

(a) The articles of incorporation;

(b) These Bylaws;

(c) A list of the names and business or home addresses of all current Directors and Officers;

(d) All financial statements and Forms 990 prepared for periods ending during the last three years;

(e) The Corporation's application for recognition of exemption and the tax-exemption determination letter issued by the Internal Revenue Service; and

(f) All other documents or records required to be maintained by the Corporation at its principal office under applicable law or regulation.

ARTICLE XII MISSION AND OPEN SOURCE COMMITMENT

The Corporation is organized to serve as the steward of the Universal Object Reference (UOR) Framework, a unified computational substrate providing a universal coordinate system for digital information. The UOR Framework is grounded in formally verified algebraic structure and is designed to structurally resolve fundamental limitations in digital identity, authentication, content verification, and agent coordination.

In furtherance of its charitable and scientific mission, the Corporation shall:

(i) Maintain and publish the UOR Framework specification, ontology, and reference implementation as free and open-source software under the Apache-2.0 license or a comparable permissive open-source license, without vendor lock-in, in accordance with the governance standards published at https://github.com/UOR-Foundation/.github;

(ii) Operate and sustain publicly accessible infrastructure in support of the UOR Framework, including open APIs, machine-readable discovery metadata, and published ontologies, to the extent consistent with the Corporation's resources;

(iii) Foster an open, inclusive, and technically rigorous community of researchers, developers, and practitioners contributing to and building upon the UOR Framework;

(iv) Support and publish scientific and educational materials advancing understanding of content-addressed identity, agentic AI infrastructure, formal verification, and related disciplines.

No action of the Board or any committee shall cause the Corporation to encumber, license exclusively, or otherwise restrict public access to the core UOR Framework specification or its foundational mathematical claims in a manner inconsistent with the open-source mission stated herein or with the governance standards maintained at https://github.com/UOR-Foundation/.github.

ARTICLE XIII MISCELLANEOUS

13.1 Governing Law. These Bylaws shall be deemed to be made under and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado.

13.2 Captions. All Article titles or captions contained in these Bylaws are for convenience only and shall not be deemed part of the context of these Bylaws.

13.3 Construction. All pronouns and any variations thereof shall be deemed to refer to the masculine, feminine, gender non-binary, singular or plural as the identity of the person or persons may require.

SECRETARY'S CERTIFICATE

I, the undersigned, being the Secretary of the Board of Directors of The UOR Foundation, a Colorado nonprofit corporation (the "Corporation"), do hereby certify that the Bylaws of the Corporation were duly adopted by the Board of Directors effective as of the 26 day of March, 2026.

A true, correct, and complete copy of the Bylaws of the Corporation as so adopted and included in the minutes of proceedings referred to above is attached hereto and incorporated herein.

I have hereunto set my hand this 31st day of March, 2026.
